

INVITATION

Exhibition

Hélène Berr, A Stolen Life

On view from December 21, 2016
through February 11, 2017

Free admission

Florida Atlantic University Center for Holocaust and Human Rights Education

Theatre Lab/Parliament Hall
777 Glades Rd
Boca Raton, FL 33431

RSVP by January 6 at deborah.farnault@memorialdelashoah.org

Complimentary parking on January 9, 5–9pm in Parking Garage 2

In partnership with

You are cordially invited to the opening reception of the exhibition

Hélène Berr

A Stolen Life

Designed, created, and distributed by the Mémorial de la Shoah, Paris, France

Monday, January 9, 2017 at 6pm

In attendance

Dr. Steven D. Roper, Executive Director, Peace, Justice and Human Rights Initiative, Office of the Provost, Florida Atlantic University

Linda Medvin, M. Ed., Director, Center for Holocaust and Human Rights Education, Florida Atlantic University

Stéphanie Menaud-Gougain, Head of Political Affairs and Communication, Consulate Général of France in Miami

Jacques Fredj, Executive Director, Mémorial de la Shoah

This exhibition was designed, created, and distributed by the Mémorial de la Shoah in Paris, France (curators Karen Taieb and Sophie Nagiscarde), with the guidance of Mariette Job (niece of Hélène Berr), and made possible through the generous support of SNCF.

This presentation was made possible through the support of the Consulate General of France in Miami, the Embassy of France in the United States, and SNCF.